One of the most popular attractions at the fair is the food. And what could be more delicious than a home-cooked meal, made with love by a family member or friend? That's why we're excited to introduce you to our new cookbook, Family Heirloom Recipes From The Illinois State Fair.

This cookbook is a collection of cherished family recipes that have been passed down through generations. These recipes represent the culinary traditions of our state, and they showcase the agricultural heritage that is so important to Illinois.

You'll find everything in this cookbook, from classic fair food like corn dogs and funnel cakes, to more sophisticated dishes like roasted lamb and grilled salmon. But what makes these recipes truly special is the stories behind them.

Each recipe in this book comes with a personal story from the family who submitted it. These stories give us a glimpse into the lives of Illinois families, and they show us how food can connect us to our past and to each other.

Whether you're a lifelong Illinoisan or a newcomer to our state, we hope you'll enjoy these recipes and the stories that accompany them. They're a delicious way to celebrate the Illinois State Fair and the culinary traditions of our state.

A Few of Our Favorite Recipes

Here are a few of our favorite recipes from the book:

- Fried Green Tomatoes: A classic Southern dish that's perfect for summer. Our recipe comes from the Smith family, who have been making these tomatoes at the fair for generations.
- Corn Dog Muffins: A fun and easy way to enjoy corn dogs. Our recipe comes from the Johnson family, who have been selling corn dogs at the fair for over 50 years.
- Grilled Salmon with Lemon-Herb Butter: A delicious and healthy way to enjoy salmon. Our recipe comes from the Brown family, who have been grilling salmon at the fair for over 20 years.

- Roasted Lamb with Garlic and Rosemary: A flavorful and tender lamb dish that's perfect for a special occasion. Our recipe comes from the Garcia family, who have been raising sheep on their farm in Illinois for over 100 years.
- Funnel Cake Fries: A sweet and crunchy treat that's perfect for sharing. Our recipe comes from the Williams family, who have been making funnel cakes at the fair for over 30 years.
